To: whom this may concern,

I am writing once again because I have recieved legal mail stating that I never sent the proper paperwork back to give permission to take funds out of my account and that they were dismissing my case. I recently ~~was~~ wrote a letter stating the same thing that I am writing now and I got no response. As I said in the last letter before, I sent the proper papers out on time but the prison takes ~~for~~ there time sending out inmates legal mail. I feel as though my case should not be thrown ^{out} for something that is not my fault. I really need to get this case resolved. Please get back to me to let me know what I have to do to get this case reopened. This case is real serious to me and my religion.
